

NEW REALMS FOR YOUR INTERIOR SURFACES

Q: Where can I find materials for my home that are practical while still having some personality?
— Tina, Sydney

A: Street art, nature, decorative and ornate patterns – the natural world and urban living collide in 14 exhilarating new designs introduced to the Laminex Fusion Surfaces range. With the explosion of individuality and expressionism driving today's trends, kitchens, bathrooms and living areas are bursting with potential for expressing distinct personalities in ways never before seen in the design industry. A revolutionary concept in surface design, the range captures colours, shapes and patterns to indulge every personality. The exciting new additions have been specially created by the Laminex team for their Design Source category, adding to a total more than 300 designs that can be used to create stunning feature walls, cupboards, partitions, furniture, tabletops, ceilings and the possibilities are endless. Falling under the Inspired by Nature and Abstract Design Source sub-categories, the new designs draw inspiration from the influence of urban living and the natural world, resulting in an aesthetic where the ordered and spontaneous sit side by side.

Tina is keen to add some personality to her furnishings.

The beauty of nature can flow harmoniously into internal living spaces with stunning murals of garden-inspired designs like Hothouse and Garden Party.

Benches and countertops will take centre stage in the kitchen with abstract designs Connectivity and Revelation introducing an element of edgy sophistication.

And the most intimate interior space can become a canvas for creative expression – a feature wall panel in Wonderland will tell an enchanting story in the bedroom.
