Laminex® 180fx™ Surfaces

The first of its kind in Australia, Laminex 180fx is a collection of premium decorative surfaces that combine the true scale and beauty of natural stone with all the practical advantages of laminate.

Achieving an unprecedented large scale design, this innovative surface replicates the beauty and magnitude of natural stone by using innovative printing technology that captures every little nuance and detail. Offering an unmatched realism, its striking colour variations and intricate veining deliver a unique, luxurious look that's perfect for residential and commercial benchtops, countertops, and vertical panelling.

The range extends to 6 carefully selected dramatic stone patterns, in combination of DiamondGloss® Matt finishes, that also complement the broader Laminex Colour Palette. Matching acrylic edging completes the masterpiece, allowing for a seamless stone slab look. Outstanding durability is also guaranteed by a 7 year limited warranty.
