Taking the latest in international design and combining it with a unique Australian flavour, the newest addition to the Laminex Colour Palette is a sublime collection of new decors that can be integrated across a variety of surfaces – think benchtops, cabinetry, doors, panels and more. Designed to endure the daily wear and tear faced by household interiors, these laminates are backed by a seven-year limited warranty and matching edging is available to ensure a seamless finish. Creating the ultimate individual space with aesthetic appeal and durability has never been so easy.
